

JLR Supplier Information Security Awareness Training.

Training Powered by Majenta.

Course Duration – 1 Day

CREATE
BETTER

majenta

01 Course Overview.

JLR supplier security awareness training is fundamental to Information Security Management best practices. This course provides a foundation level of understanding enabling delegates to appreciate the role they play in protecting information and allow them to be better prepared to support JLR by adopting more effective business behaviours.

The course has been created to deliver the below topics in the context of the 'JLR Policies and Standards'.

- A detailed look at core elements of the ISO 27000 family of standards
- An understanding of what information security management is
- An understanding Foundational elements of cyber security
- A security focused approach to working with and protecting information
- An understanding of the role to be played by the delegate in ensuring the security of informational assets

02 Course Structure.

Part 1:

- Information Security Management System Fundamentals
- Understanding ISMS means

Part 2:

- Introduction to ISO 27000 family of standards
- ISO 27000 - Purpose and Contents
- ISO 27001: Understanding ISO 27001, terms of reference, purpose and contents
- Key elements of ISO 27001
- ISO 27001 Annex A Controls